Roll Call of Red Cross to Start Today

Local Workers to Accept Membership in Big Organization

Sierra Madre's Quota Is 750; Personal Calls To Be Made

Today in every city, village and hamlet of the United States a mighty arm of volunteer workers springs into action in the cause of humanity, and opens the annual roll call of the American Red Cross. The roll call is the campaign conducted through the country from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving day for the purpose of securing funds to carry on the relief work of the organization.

During these two weeks an attempt is made to extend to every man and woman a personal invitation to participate in the work and become a member of the Association. Membership dues finance the work of the Red Cross and enable it to perform its manifold functions for the benefit of suffering humanity. The Red Cross cannot stop to raise funds when the emergency arises. Action, prompt and instant, is its life. Immediate action means the lives of many.

Total expenditures of the American Red Cross in the fiscal year to June 30 last in all fields amounted to $16,139,348 of which $11,360,348 represented the National organization's appropriations and $4,779,000 the cost to the Red Cross local chapters. Included in this total was a disaster relief, for which $8,216,893 had actually been expended to the close of the year. This does not cover expenditures which continued to be made in the Mississippi Valley flood, or in other disasters originating during the fiscal year but whose operations extended over into the current period.

Service to disabled veterans, another outstanding demand on the organization, called for $2,930,223 and service to men of the regular army and navy, $507,832.

These expenditures emphasize the need for a larger membership and an increased income.

The quota announced for Sierra Madre is 750, and Mr. Mitchell, chairman of the local chapter, is bending every effort to go over the top in the shortest possible time. There are many in Sierra Madre who annually take out contributing and sustaining memberships at five and ten dollars each. Only fifty cents of each membership goes to the general fund, the balance remains in the treasury of the local chapter for local relief. During the past year approximately $900 has been expended in Sierra Madre for the relief of the sick and the needy and in aid of disabled veterans. The Red Cross is our Community Chest, and it deserves the support of every member of the community, regardless of race or creed.

The Roll Call is being conducted from the office of the chamber of commerce, and people are urged to go there to enroll. All the real estate dealers in the city have pledged their support to obtain the required quota, and they will gladly accept membership fees and issue receipts. If more convenient, checks may be mailed to headquarters, or phone Red 48 for a personal call.

The first ten chapters to go over the top in the Pacific division will receive honorable mention and obtain a special certificate.

A paper, written in original style, was read by Mrs. S. H. Guilford at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church Tuesday, when the members met for an all-day sewing session. Mrs. Guilford's paper told of the efforts of the women to earn money for the organization during the summer, and in addition, several original poems were read.

Tuesday at the church there be another all-day meeting, the Aid meeting in the morning to sew for the bazaar, and the Missionary Society members joining the group for the luncheon and afternoon program. Luncheon will be at 12:30. The program will be largely presented by Mrs. E. D. Burbank, who will read a paper on the new missionary project at Breusa, Turkey.

Articles are being received at each meeting for the bazaar, to be held Friday, December 12.

San Gabriel Club Hears Col. Clum In Alaskan Talk

Slides showing conditions in Alaska during the gold rush of 1900 were shown Tuesday evening to members of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the San Gabriel Valley who attended the meeting in Temple. Col. John P. Clum was the speaker of the evening.

The program, arranged by the Temple hosts, followed dinner in the school house and included greetings by B. K. Wilson, president of the Temple chamber of commerce, a response by Bob Williams, president of the association, dialogue, Jim McGrath and Gilbert Turner, selections, School Harmonica Band, and comic selections, John Thompson.

Those present from Sierra Madre were Gordon Brooks, R. G. McLellan, Gordon MacMillan and Tom Tyler.

Sierra Madre Singers At New Club

To Appear at Foothill Breakfast Club First Meeting In December

Sierra Madre musicians will be the feature number on the morning program at the Foothill Breakfast club, Arcadia, on Thursday morning, December 1. The invitation to appear was received from Chairman Cook of the entertainment committee, who extended the invitation through M. Penn Phillips, a director in the club. The musicians who are to appear are the same who recently appeared on the program for the San Gabriel Valley chamber of commerce, where their work received generous appreciation. Announcement will be made later concerning personnel and program.

The meeting Thursday morning was largely attended and an unusually fine program was presented. Herr Frederick Meisel, violinist, being the feature. Herr Meisel is one of the foremost violinists of the day and his numbers, to his wife's accompaniment, were thoroughly enjoyed. Bill Hatch, club pianist, a lady soloist and a jazz violinist furnished several entertaining numbers. At the next meeting, the Roosters of the Los Angeles Breakfast club will furnish the entertainment. Special Thanksgiving features will be presented November 24.

Major Shoop, Pasadena councilman, was the principal speaker yesterday morning, his theme being Armistice Day, its significance and proper observance. As a veteran of the world war he spoke authoritatively and interestingly.

President Beatty made a short talk in which he stressed the importance of real citizenship. Mr. Beatty will be the speaker at the Armistice Day program today at Arcadia.

M. Penn Phillips, A. G. Williams, Dr. L. L. Krebs, R. S. Corlett, Jack Hosford, W. R. Humphries, Henry Isaacs, Mr. Collins and Joe R. Eastwood were present from Sierra Madre.

Officers Of Chapter For Year Chosen

Election of officers of Sierra Madre chapter No. 299, Order of the Eastern Star Monday night resulted in the choice of the following to serve for the ensuing year:

Worthy Matron, Miss Eleanor Bayne; worthy patron, Harold F. Roberts; associate matron, Mrs. Agnes Tyree; secretary, Mrs. Lila Ken-dall; conductress, Mrs. Harriet Buckingham; associate conductress, Mrs. Leila Roberts. The other officers of the chapter are appointed by the incoming matron. It was voted to hold the installation of officers at the first meeting in December.

A delightful dinner and dancing party was held Saturday night at the Marigold Gardens in compliment to Mrs. Pearl Steinberger, worthy matron, and Thomas Mailer, worthy patron of the chapter. The guests, consisting of a large group of officers and members of the chapter, were seated at a beautifully appointed long table. There was a beautiful basket of roses as a centerpiece and waxed roses were used as favors. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Legion Opens Holiday With Park Address

Patriotic Exercises to Be Held at 10:00 O'Clock; All Invited

Carnival In Evening Will Draw Crowd for Local Post

While the Red Cross Roll Call will open Armistice Day activities in Sierra Madre, the Legion will officially open the day at 10 a. m. with a patriotic address and exercises in the park. Attorney Harold D. Leddy of the Pasadena post will be the speaker.

Stores are closing for the day, at the request of the Legion, and school children, who are also enjoying a holiday, will attend the exercises in a body, under the direction of the teachers.

In the evening attention of the community will center around the carnival dance in the Woman's club house, under the auspices of the American Legion. A program, dancing, card playing and various booths have been arranged for the amusement of the guests, and twelve turkeys will play an important part in the evening's entertainment.

The Auxiliary is assisting with the refreshments, and the Legion committees follow: Dance, R. R. Moreland, Art Evans, R. O. Calkin and Robert Steinberger; concessions, George Hapgood, Ralph Stewart, Richard Bennett, O. E. Emley, Harvey Steinberger, B. Coffee and Henry Olsen.

Funeral Services For Aged Mother Here Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Elanson H. Green who passed away at her home, 66 East Laurel Street, Wednesday, will be held at the Church of the Ascension Saturday at 9:30, with Dean William Carson Shaw, rector emeritus, officiating.

Mrs. Green, the mother of Miss Edna Green, was past 60 years of age and until a few months ago had been in excellent health. A fall recently impaired her already weakened condition and is believed responsible for her death.

While she has not a large acquaintance in the community, she was well known and greatly beloved in the neighborhood in which she lived with her daughter.

Mrs. Green was born at Lattingtown, Long Island. She was married to Elanson H. Green in St. Paul's church, Glen Cove, N. Y., in the year 1868. Her husband, who was a prominent educator of Brooklyn, N. Y., passed away some years ago.

Her married life was spent in Brooklyn and in California. She is survived by one brother, Edward T. Latting, and three children, Miss Edna Green, Elmer E. Green, formerly a resident of Sierra Madre and now bursar of Pomona College, Claremont, and Mrs. G. E. Newport, Morris, Ill., and several grandchildren.

Services will be held at the Church of the Ascension Saturday at 9:30 a. m., Dean Shaw, rector emeritus of the parish, officiating.

Local Legion Man On County Board

R. W. Stewart of Sierra Madre, member of the American Legion, has been appointed to the county board, having been named chairman of finance for the Los Angeles county council at the regular meeting last Friday night in Los Angeles. Mr. Stewart was also chairman of the annual banquet and installation of officers at the Breakers Club at Santa Monica, when the new county officers were installed.

Herbert Hoover says: "We, the American people, have created a great national organization that should be ever ready for great emergencies. The American Red Cross is that organization. And this, your organization, is doing its duty effectively and efficiently. It is your hand carrying out the will of your great heart. It asks that you enlarge your support that it shall not fail."

JEWISH PEOPLE PLAN TO BUILD MEETING HOUSE

Erection of a community house in which the Jewish people of Sierra Madre may hold social as well as religious meetings, is being spoken of as a possibility by the members of the Hebrew Social Club. The new home of the organization was formally opened at 293 West Grand View Sunday evening with a large attendance.

H. Platt, who has served as president of the club for the past few years spoke of the long-felt need of the community of a building in which to hold religious services and social entertainments. He asked for the co-operation of all present, as well as every Jewish resident in Sierra Madre. He also spoke of the desirability of a Jewish school in the community.

While the plans for the proposed buildings are vague as yet, the building committee will be appointed soon, and it is hoped that the project will move forward rapidly from then on.

Rabbi B. J. Riseman of Los Angeles opened the meeting Sunday evening with invocation, and later reminded those present of the need for the school. Louis Schuster of Sierra Madre sang several ballads, including "The Spanish Inquisition" and "The Sexton of the Synagogue." Miss Mamie Kravetz gave a number of violin solos.

Refreshments were served under the supervision of Mrs. Meyer Gittman. Services will be held in the club headquarters every Friday evening at 7 o'clock and at 8:30 Saturday morning.

A. G. Williams Will Market Leona Valley

Appointed Pasadena Representative of Phillips-Hambaugh

A. G. Williams of Sierra Madre has been appointed representative for Pasadena and vicinity of the Phillips-Hambaugh Corporation for the marketing of Leona Valley ranch lands. Consisting of properties situated in the heart of a fertile area, Mr. Williams declares that the region is among the most successful fruit raising districts of the state and reports that many Pasadenaans and others are showing a keen interest in the site, which has undergone significant developments in recent years.

Doing business from offices at 39 North Broadway, Mr. Williams home from a trip to the region, compares the present conditions there with conditions as he knew them thirty-five years ago. He says: "Thirty-five years ago I drove a six-horse team from Los Angeles to my father's cattle ranch, in Antelope Valley, in five days. It was necessary for me to camp along the road, and when possible, I always arranged to make camp in what is now Leona Valley, to get away from the winds."

"Imagine what my thoughts would have been if anyone had told me that I would be able to drive to this beautiful valley in two hours, sub-irrigated from the surrounding hills, wild grasses and sunflowers grew like they did on the old low land where I was born; the sunflowers in some places higher than my horses. This struck me forcibly as to the fertility of the soil. Recently I found pears, apples, cherries and even gooseberries growing with surprising rapidity and without irrigation. It determined me to represent the Phillips and Hambaugh company in Pasadena in the sale of this land."

Magnificent Orchards

Hundreds of visitors to the mountain valley at the head of Bouquet Canyon, which is located at an altitude of 3,300 feet, have commented on the magnificent orchards of pears, apples, cherries, almonds and various other fruits which have developed, not only in the valley, but on the hillsides in the region, reports from Phillips and Hambaugh say.

Speaking of the fertile qualities of the district, Mr. Williams says: "Several acres planted by W. E. Young, who follows a contracting business during the week in nearby towns, attest the fertility of the soil and the growing conditions. Two hundred grape cuttings set out three years ago bore fruit last year, and peach trees duplicated the performance, one tree having 200 peaches last year. Cherry trees this year stand eight to ten feet tall, while between the rows may be found huge watermelons, some weighing fifty pounds each. A casaba melon tipped the scales at twenty-four pounds."

"The elevation of 3,300 feet on the coastal side of the divide is responsible for the heavy rainfall in the section, it is believed. From five to ten inches more rainfall than Los Angeles normally enjoys provides the water sheds with sufficient supplies of moisture. The valley attracts many visitors during the summer months because of its resort-like climate, residents say. Absence of fog and heat has brought many residents for health, which the high, dry atmosphere likewise benefits."

"A club house at a beautifully landscaped point, high in the valley, has been arranged for members who have become owners of the estates. Cabins and rooms in the main buildings will accommodate a number of visitors at any time. Mrs. Charles Hoffman, wife of the sales director for Phillips and Hambaugh Company of Los Angeles, has given up her home at 1991 North Los Robles to become a hostess at the club. Saddle horse, hunting facilities, a swimming pool, and many delightful scenic spots nearby have afforded unending enjoyment for them, she stated recently."

"Sales have been rapid since the project was opened several weeks ago, and already several acres have been taken. Every week end between thirty and fifty guests are entertained at the club, and every week has seen a number of sales."

Contract On New Church Authorized

Construction Work Will Begin at Once on $65,000 Edifice

Action Authorized at Largely Attended Meeting of the Membership

Construction work on the new $65,000 Congregational Church will begin just as soon as contracts can be let, in accordance with the vote of the members at their meeting Wednesday night. The meeting was specially called to consider the building project and was largely attended. The business was taken up following the serving of a delicious baked ham dinner by the ladies of the Aid Society.

Rev. A. O. Pritchard presided and the report of the building committee was presented by E. E. Bacon. After a review of the activities of the committee and the architect in arriving at a satisfactory plan which is also within the means of the organization, the committee recommended that the board of directors of the church be authorized to negotiate the building contracts and the necessary loans. After a lengthy discussion and many questions a hearty and unanimous affirmative vote was given.

The building committee recommended a program to cost complete not to exceed $61,000, plus architect's fees. Individual contractors were not named in the authorization. The bid of Witt & Chute on the general contract was considerably the lowest, but some of the minor contracts are yet to be determined. The total named is large enough to include all items of the building.

Under the plan adopted the contract will be let first for the educational plant, only, this item costing approximately $38,000. Enough cash and pledges have already been secured to pay for this without incurring any indebtedness except for the period required to take up outstanding pledges. The contractor's bid gives the option of making a contract for erection of the church auditorium and completing the entire building at any time before the completion of the first unit.

It was agreed that a strenuous effort would be made to push the financial campaign during the next 90 days so that the complete building program can be carried out under the option without any additional cost for a divided program.

Sale of the present church property is expected to provide largely for the cost of furnishing the new building.

one tree having 200 peaches last year. Cherry trees this year stand eight to ten feet tall, while between the rows may be found huge watermelons, some weighing fifty pounds each. A casaba melon tipped the scales at twenty-four pounds.

Elevation and Rain

From five to ten inches more rainfall than Los Angeles normally enjoys provides the water sheds with sufficient supplies of moisture. The valley attracts many visitors during the summer months because of its resort-like climate, residents say. Masons Urged to Attend School of Instruction

J. N. Hawks, master of the Masonic lodge, announces that there will be a school of instruction for officers and other Masons who wish to attend, next Tuesday afternoon and evening in the Arcadia Masonic hall. Thomas J. Baker, grand lecturer, will preside, the afternoon sessions beginning at 2:30 o'clock. It is desired that all officers attend these sessions and receive instruction in the ritual as imparted at the last session of the grand lodge.

Members of the lodge organized a volunteer working crew at the Masonic Temple Tuesday night. They showed their craftsmanship in a variety of work as painters, carpenters, and all-round handy men.

Library Aims At 4000 Mark In November

Librarian Endeavoring to Gain Added Interest in Books

While the goal of a monthly circulation of 4000 had not yet been reached at the Sierra Madre Library, Miss Lulu Moore, librarian, reports that during the month of October, 1927, 3639 books were taken out, as compared with 3423 for the same period last year, a gain of 216.

Included in the total circulation are 2751 books for the adult department and 888 from the juvenile department. Fifty-one per cent was adult fiction, 23 per cent non-fiction and 25 per cent juvenile fiction. Twenty-four new patrons were registered during the month.

Miss Moore is calling attention to Children's Book week, November 14 to 19, which is observed in libraries and book shops throughout the country, and special attention is given to children's books during this time.

A pamphlet known as the Bookshelf for boys and girls is edited each year and several of the leading children's librarians of the country. This is a discriminating list containing book suggestions for the younger children, books for the older boys and girls, and books for the Boy Scouts.

A number of these lists are at the library and parents or others interested in children's reading can have one by asking at the library for it. Many new books have been purchased for the children and will be on display and later in the week circulated.

Building for October Less Than Sept.

Total of $23,118 Passes Thru Books of City Building Inspector

Despite the fact that the $21,900.00 city hall permit was included in the list of building permits issued by the city of Sierra Madre during the month of October, the total falls short of the figure for the two previous months. A total of $23,118 is recorded on the books of E. H. Keegan, as compared with $32,525 for September and $27,650 for August. Permits were granted as follows:

W. H. Mays, 141 Esperanza	$ 100
Amelia Brecker, 175 San	80
Carl Bovard, 153 Lowell	250
R. R. Whitcomb, 57 W.	21,900
Central (city hall)	288
Nellie Foster, 65 S. Bald.	50
A. L. Smith	450
George H. Clark	450

October has always been a quiet month along the building line, and the figure for 1927 is much higher than that of 1926, when it was $3481.00.

Children Get Hearty Meal For 15 Cents

School Cafeteria Solves Problem for Pupils At Luncheon

Parents Urged to Visit Dining Room During the Noon Rush

Crash! Bang! Dead silence, broken by a relieved sigh, and a whoop of joy from a missing tooth, freckle-faced youngster.

"Whew, boy! Didcha see 'at? I dropped a whole tray full of tin plates, and I never broke one." The incident occurred in the cafeteria of the grammar school yesterday, during the noon-hour rush, when 100 hungry little pupils were fed a substantial meal for an average of 15 cents. The fortunate lad was one of the five who assist Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, cafeteria manager, with the clearing of the tables and the washing of the dishes in return for a daily luncheon.

While the school cafeteria has long been a part of the school program, parents, without visiting during the noon hour and obtaining one of the wholesome meals served daily, can have no possible idea of the undertaking.

For the sum of 15 cents, a meal of beef stew, or some savory meat substitute, a raisin or brown bread sandwich and a salad or desert may be obtained. Milk is offered at five cents per bottle, the cost of each dish.

Taking yesterday's menu as an average, and no special preparation had been made, some idea of the food offered the children at rock bottom prices may be arrived at. Beef a la mode was the favored dish. A generous helping contained, besides the meat, carrots, turnips, tomatoes and potatoes. With it the child had a choice of buttered cauliflower, buttered turnips, peanut salad with peanuts, bread and butter, orange-pearapple or strawberry jello and milk. Some days there is soup.

Mrs. Patterson prepares the meals herself, and so closely does she figure that there is rarely any food left over for the following day. The children are free to dine at the cafeteria whenever they wish, but matters for the cook and the financing committee could be more easily arranged providing all of the children took meals there.

Some of the children are supplied with sandwiches from home, and take only milk and desert at the school, but the cost of the warm meal is so low that it would scarcely exceed the cost of the sandwiches. Mrs. Patterson is working under difficulties this year, having lost the assistance of the 7th and 8th grades thru the removal of these grades to the junior high school. The noon rush is great, as in less than 15 minutes the line of from 100 to 150 children has passed thru the serving room.

She is also handicapped by the fact that from one day to another she does not know just how many she will have to serve. Providing the cafeteria could be patronized by the entire school, and both P.T.A. officers and teachers at the school feel that a meal cannot be served at home for less, better service could be rendered, and an assistant for Mrs. Patterson could be hired.

One of the best features of the cafeteria schedule is the fact that once a child enters the dining room he or she must remain until 12:15, giving the child plenty of time to eat his meal without swallowing it whole so as to get back on the playground. Service starts at 12 minutes to 12, and by 12:30 the dining room is emptied.

On rainy days, the hall is generally filled to capacity, and the pans of food are sorely taxed.

The Parent Teacher association is largely responsible for the introduction of the cafeteria, and for its financial condition. Ordinarily the project pays for itself, but occasionally there is a shortage, and such shortage is met by the association.

Mrs. Jean A. Buie, sister of Mrs. Frank Porter Miller of Sierra Madre, became the bride of William P. Robinson of Kansas City Friday, November 4, in the West Adams Methodist Church. The ceremony was read by the Rev. J. Wesley Neely at 8 o'clock in the evening, before relatives of the bride and groom.

TODAY'S CELEBRATION

WHEN Armistice Day was made a California state holiday it was with the understanding that it be made a memorial occasion rather than a carnival day. And it was fitting that Governor Young should insist upon the distinction. That does not mean that the day must be devoted to solemnities, although consideration of the sacrifices and other fruits of war cannot avoid a measure of solemn emotion. It was probably the type of celebration which is inspired by the cupidity of professional promoters that the governor had in mind when he laid down the conditions on which he would approve the bill.

Armistice Day is an occasion of mixed emotions and no one type of celebration can do justice to it. Remembering the day when news of the Armistice told of the cessation of hostilities, there come to mind the mingled feelings in evidence. So wrought up did the nation become that it was only a short step from hilarity to prayer, from tears to cheers.

So in Sierra Madre Armistice Day will have fitting observance. Appropriate tribute will be paid to the heroes and the martyrs of the great war, to those living and those who have carried the torch beyond our ken. In the evening the boys of the American Legion and their loyal helpers of the Auxiliary have invited the public to join them in a celebration reflecting the other side of the occasion. But it should be remembered that the good time which is in store is only one phase of the event. The aim is the raising of funds for Legion purposes. And those purposes are familiar to few of the general public.

Sierra Madre has a peculiar responsibility as the aftermath of the war. The glorious climate with which we are blessed makes this a haven of rest and refuge for many of those disabled in the conflict and left to fight the long, disheartening battle of broken health. The struggles of many of these men and their families are known often to none but their buddies of the Legion who look after their welfare. Sierra Madre Post has established an enviable reputation for the manner in which it meets this responsibility. It deserves the whole-hearted support and encouragement of the entire community; not only on Armistice Day but all the year.

IN PEACE OR WAR

IT IS FITTING that the annual Red Cross Roll Call should begin on Armistice Day. So closely is the Red Cross bound up with the memories of the World War that on that basis alone there is ample claim for its support. But with every passing year we come to depend upon the Red Cross more and more as the proper administrator of large scale relief. And the striking thing about this large scale relief is the manner in which this wonderful organization is able to reach out its healing touch with the familiarity and intimacy of family relationship. Thus is the whole world brought into kinship and the Red Cross earns the title of the greatest mother in the world.

It should not be forgotten that most of the money subscribed to the Sierra Madre chapter remains here for local use. And the larger the gift the greater the proportion so available. Sierra Madre has no Community Chest nor Associated Charities. There is no cumbersome organization to eat up the funds in overhead expense. Probably no dollar given to charity anywhere is used more completely for its intended purpose than that given to the local Red Cross.

MATTOON ACT ADVANCED

WEDNESDAY'S papers told of another court decision supporting the Mattoon Act as valid and workable. True, it was not a court of appeal, but paves the way for a final decision, and makes a favorable outcome seem more likely.

Fully as important as the favorable superior court decision is the attitude of the bond houses toward the bonds involved. In the face of broadcast statements that Mattoon Act securities could not be sold, the bonds in the particular project involved were oversubscribed and the high bidders offered a substantial premium. Thus is the way being paved for effective action on many projects for which the Mattoon Act seemed the only possible method.

THE KNOCKOUT

WHEN prize fighting was legalized in California the prediction was freely made that the fight promoters would soon make the game a stench in the nostrils of a decent public. The prediction has come true even faster than anyone expected. The big money involved is too much for the class of men actively engaged in the business end of the game. It is about as easy for them to play straight as it would be for a weasel to go hungry in a chicken house. Boxing is a wonderful sport but of all sports it is the one which ought to be kept on an amateur basis. If the sport gets a knockout it will be administered by the crooked professional element.

is an organization forever beyond the reach of fear or favor. It knows neither creed, nor party, nor prejudice. It hears but one challenge: the challenge of human misery, and it has but one answer: the touch of sympathy and aid. On the field of battle, in the dismal hospitals of pain, in the wake of storm and tempest, of fire, of flood, of pestilence and famine, it is the left hand of the Nation—the one nearest its heart.

The Roll Call is now on. Sierra Madre's quota is 750. Everybody ought to join. Do it today. We will gladly accept your subscription.

Lieben Concert Is Drawing Card

Nothing of greater importance to both club women and music lovers of the community has been planned for the winter season than the concert which will be offered by Corita Lieben, mezzo-contralto, assisted by Gladys M. Clark, violinist and Mrs. C. A. Wolf, pianist.

Mrs. Lieben's appearance upon a program always insures a success, and this particular event, to be given on the evening of November 12, at 8:15, is being sponsored by the Woman's Club. Following is the program:

Aria, "Connais tu le pays" from Mignon, Thomas.
"Frühlingsnacht," Schumann.
"Still wie die nacht," Böhm.
"Dawn," Curran; "The Sleigh," Kountz.

"Serenade," Taldez; "Barcarolle," Alcock, "Loure" Bach; Gladys M. Clark.

"Parting" Rogers; "La Colombe," Schindler (Tuscan Folk song); "His Lullaby," Bond; "The Cry of Rachel," Salter.

"Star of Love," Robandi, violin obligato.

Dinner Party Is Smart Event

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawless was the setting for a prettily appointed dinner party Wednesday evening when a number of friends were invited for a steak bake. The steaks were cooked over the glowing coals in the open fireplace of the amusement room, where the dining table had been placed.

The table was centered with a bowl of fruit and autumn leaves, and orange candles in iridescent glass holders cast a soft light over the diners. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sawyer of South Pasadena, Mrs. Frank J. Hart of Sierra Madre Villa, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. E. Bravender of Baldwin Park, Clare Bravender of Vancouver. Following the dinner bridge was played in the living room.

Room 6A at the grammar school is being painted at the present time. A warm ivory has been chosen for walls and woodwork, as it is believed that color will make it lighter. Mrs. Lela Kendall is the teacher in charge of the class.

Chinese Art Is Section Subject

Stalks of bamboo completely concealed the walls of the Caroline Lincoln Osgood room Tuesday afternoon, creating the proper atmosphere for the first meeting of the art section of the Woman's Club, when early Chinese art was discussed.

Under the chairmanship of Miss Harriet Grant, forty women gathered for the afternoon's study. The bamboo had been arranged by Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Conard. During the session, various members related incidents of the summer, stressing the significant beauty of each.

Mrs. Thomas R. Fleming was the speaker, and she gave a most comprehensive paper tracing Chinese art from its earliest stages to the Manchu dynasty. The talk was illustrated with a number of rare Chinese articles, among them two lovely ivories and a colorful mandarin coat. Tea was served at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Grant stated that she would like to plan a series of visits to art centers near here and mentioned especially the monthly exhibit in the museum at Exposition Park, Los Angeles, the Art Center on Olive Hill, and Woodwardia Glen, at the Western Avenue entrance to Griffith Park. The glen is especially beautiful at this time of the year when the hills are covered with holly.

Word has been received from Frank Fraiberg, who has been spending some months in Europe, that he sailed on the Leviathan, leaving November 1 for home. After a brief stop at Cleveland and other eastern points, he expects to be in Sierra Madre before the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. George Redpath and four children of Alberta, Can., are expected to arrive in Sierra Madre Saturday. They will visit for several weeks at the home of Mrs. Redpath's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Laidlaw, 169 Lima street. They expect to locate in Sierra Madre.

Club Gathers to Hear "Behaviorism"

While the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Ollie A. Topham of Hollywood, presented her very fascinating topic, "Behaviorism," as outlined by John Watson, in an accurate manner, Mrs. Augusta Lehmann Root, contralto, carried off the honors of the program presented before the Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Root, who with the others on the program had been secured by Mrs. H. I. Hawhurst in cooperation with the chairman, Mrs. John Osgood, completely won her large audience with her charm of manner and her extremely deep and vibrant voice. Her expression was all that could have been wished, and her diction clear. She was recalled several times in response to the enthusiastic applause which followed each number. She was assisted at the piano by Mrs. Celeste Ryus.

Mrs. Root opened the afternoon program with a group of three selections which included "Good Morning Bright Sunshine" by Liza Lehmann and "The Silver Ring" by Chaminade. Following the address she sang a second group composed of "Invocation to Eros," Kursteiner, Lemaire, "Si Mai Vers" by Hahn and "Parting" by Rogers.

In her review of John Watson's psychology, Mrs. Topham brought out more clearly than anything else the author's idea of proper conditioning in the every day environment.

Luncheon was served at 1:00 o'clock in the club dining room, which was a symphony in the warmer shades of yellow and orange. Orange and yellow runners, extending the length of each table were etched with artistically placed pepper leaves, and centered with vases of marigolds. The tables were decorated by Mrs. Netta Finlayson, and the flowers were from the garden of Mrs. C. E. House.

Dr. Elizabeth M. Saphro of the Los Angeles County Health department, was the luncheon speaker, explaining the Crippled Children's bill, which club women of California were instrumental in getting passed. Dr. Saphro holds an executive position under Dr. Pomeroy and is an authority on condition of children and the benefits which may be reaped from the bill. Under its provisions, appropriations will be made for individual care of ill and crippled children in each district.

Dr. Saphro mentioned the distinctive work of Miss Florence Lusted, art teacher in the Sierra Madre schools, stating that through her assistance in bringing out hygienic importance by means of work on health posters, she had been placed on the county advisory staff. For two years art students under Miss Lusted have won the county-wide contest for health posters.

During the afternoon a few brief announcements were made by Mrs. Fletcher H. White, club president, among them being the notice of the concert to be given by Mrs. Howard Lieben at the club house.

Men of the community are being especially thought of by the Woman's Club program chairman, Mrs. John Osgood, in the announcement of the speaker for "husband's night" to be held at the club late in November. Dr. Frederick Roman, who not only holds a degree from Columbia University, but also from the Sorbonne, at Paris and from Berlin, will address the audience.

Dr. Roman is an authority on political economy, and his lectures are replete with first hand information, presented in such a way that they may be easily grasped by every member of the audience. Pertinent international matters will be outlined by the speaker.

Youngsters to Present Playlet

John Alden, Miles Standish, Priscilla, Gov. Bradford and the remainder of the early Pilgrims will appear Wednesday, November 23, in the grammar school, when pupils of Mrs. Eva Moore's 4A grade will present a playlet, "The First Thanksgiving."

The children will give the play during the afternoon, and parents are invited to be present. The cast is as follows: Gov. Bradford, Earl Barlow; Miles Standish, Kendall Heasley; John Alden, Bruce Kellogg; Priscilla, Twila Stinman; Mrs. White, Martha Groth; Massasoit, Carlos Hauffen; Samoset, Stewart Madin; Squanto, Charles Collins. Other pupils will take the parts of Indians and Pilgrims.

One thousand Christmas wreaths, to be hung in the windows of the Soldier's Home at Sawtelle, is the order which has been placed by the women's clubs of Los Angeles county and Sierra Madre women will take an important part in the filling of the order.

Mrs. Laura Cline of the Woman's club has the material for the wreaths and has set Tuesday afternoon as the date for local women to assist in the program. It is hoped to complete ninety-four wreaths Tuesday afternoon.

The cheer and holiday atmosphere which the wreaths create in the hospital is great, according to physicians in charge. During the past few weeks, the local club women have adopted the surgical ward at Sawtelle for special attention, and many of the wreaths made by them will be hung there.

Annual Christmas Party Planned

First plans for the annual Christmas party for children of the community are under way today, following announcement of the event by Mrs. Fletcher H. White, president of the Woman's club at the meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Steinberger has been appointed in charge of the event, and will be assisted by an able committee, to be announced later. Each year the club sponsors a program and party in the club house, at which time gifts are presented to each child present. All children of the community have been invited, but each one must be sponsored by some club woman. Further announcement as to date and program will be made later in the month.

E. M. Johnson of Portland, Ore. is visiting his sisters Mrs. E. W. Schreier of Sierra Madre and Mrs. William Mallory of Pasadena. He has just completed a six-year period of enlistment in the navy and has had many interesting experiences to relate. During his active service he spent much time in the orient and the South Sea islands.

Mme. L. P. Fischer, accompanied by her small daughter, Beatrice, has arrived from Seattle, Washington, and is stopping at the home of Mrs. Jacob Annas until she finds suitable quarters for herself. Mme. Fischer is a costume designer of long experience, and had one of the most exclusive clienteles in Seattle, according to Mrs. Annas, who knew her there. She arrived from the north two weeks ago, but after staying for several days at the Annas home, went to Santa Barbara. She had expected to start business there but was so impressed with Sierra Madre that she returned here to locate permanently.

Among the curiosities of the month is the flowering dahlia tree in the Leah Fletcher Gardens on West Highland. Miss Fletcher reports that during the summer and fall the tree continued to grow and leaf until it reached the height of an ordinary orange tree, without a blossom. During the past week it has flowered out, the entire top being a mass of single-leaved pale pink blossoms.

Miss Helen Brooks of Pasadena was a visitor in Sierra Madre last evening, having motored from the Crown City after the performance at the Community Playhouse, where she was bidding friends farewell. Miss Brooks leaves Friday for Houston, Texas, where she will appear at one of the large playhouses in ingenue roles during the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brayton, who recently arrived from New York to make their home in California, spent several days the first of the week with friends in Sierra Madre.

St. Ritas to Give Carnival Dance—

A carnival dance, with all the phrase implies, will be given at St. Rita's Friday evening, November 18, under the auspices of the Altar Societl. Mrs. P. Thill is in charge of the event, and states that she is arranging for many novelties. There will be refreshments, and a fine orchestra is promised.

Dinner Dance Honors Bride and Groom

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pearl of Los Angeles, who were recently married, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Karpf entertained with a dinner party at the home, 375 East Grand View, Wednesday evening.

The table appointments were in orange and gold, matching the centerpiece of gold chrysanthemums. Tall orange candles were in gold holders, and place cards and bon bon baskets further carried out the color scheme. Twelve guests were entertained at dinner, and others from Pasadena arrived later in the evening for dancing.

The Foote Stationery store and Mrs. Mary Heylek of Grove Street are new members of the Chamber of Commerce, having taken out membership this week.

Don't forget the carnival dance at St. Rita's, November 18. There will be many novelties introduced during the evening, and refreshments will be served. A Los Angeles orchestra will furnish the music. Admission 50 cents.

The American Legion wishes to thank the business men and women of the city of Sierra Madre for their co-operation in closing their places of business in respect for the memory of Armistice Day, November 11th.

(Signed) R. R. Moreland, Commander.

You notice nobody has had the nerve to pick out any one woman in America and call her the average woman.—Tampa Tribune.

Interesting News Notes from Sierra Madre Canyon

On Monday afternoon Mrs. L. E. Wheeler entertained three tables at bridge at her home, 409 Alta Vista Drive. After the games delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those enjoying Mrs. Wheeler's hospitality were Mme. J. Marion Jones, L. S. High, W. B. Corum, James Heasley, Frank E. Cox, W. Stevenson, J. F. Key, G. E. Babbitt, L. K. Layton, H. C. Reavis, R. S. Webb and Mr. Ed. Harrington. Mrs. Key won high score and Mrs. Corum was awarded consolation prize.

Mrs. B. P. Bradford, who has spent the past four months with her son, E. P. Bradford and his wife in the canyon, is leaving on Friday for Kansas City, Missouri, where she expects to make her future home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Layton have as their guest this week Mr. Layton's aunt, Miss Belle Marsh of Chino.

Miss Minerva Boatright of Long Beach has recently purchased Cadmus Camp and Virge Inn from Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Virgin. Miss Boatright plans to spend the winter in the Canyon.

Miss Dorothy Petzel attended the piano concert of Ignaz Friedman at Philharmonic Auditorium in company with Professor and Mrs. Oscar Rasbach on Tuesday evening.

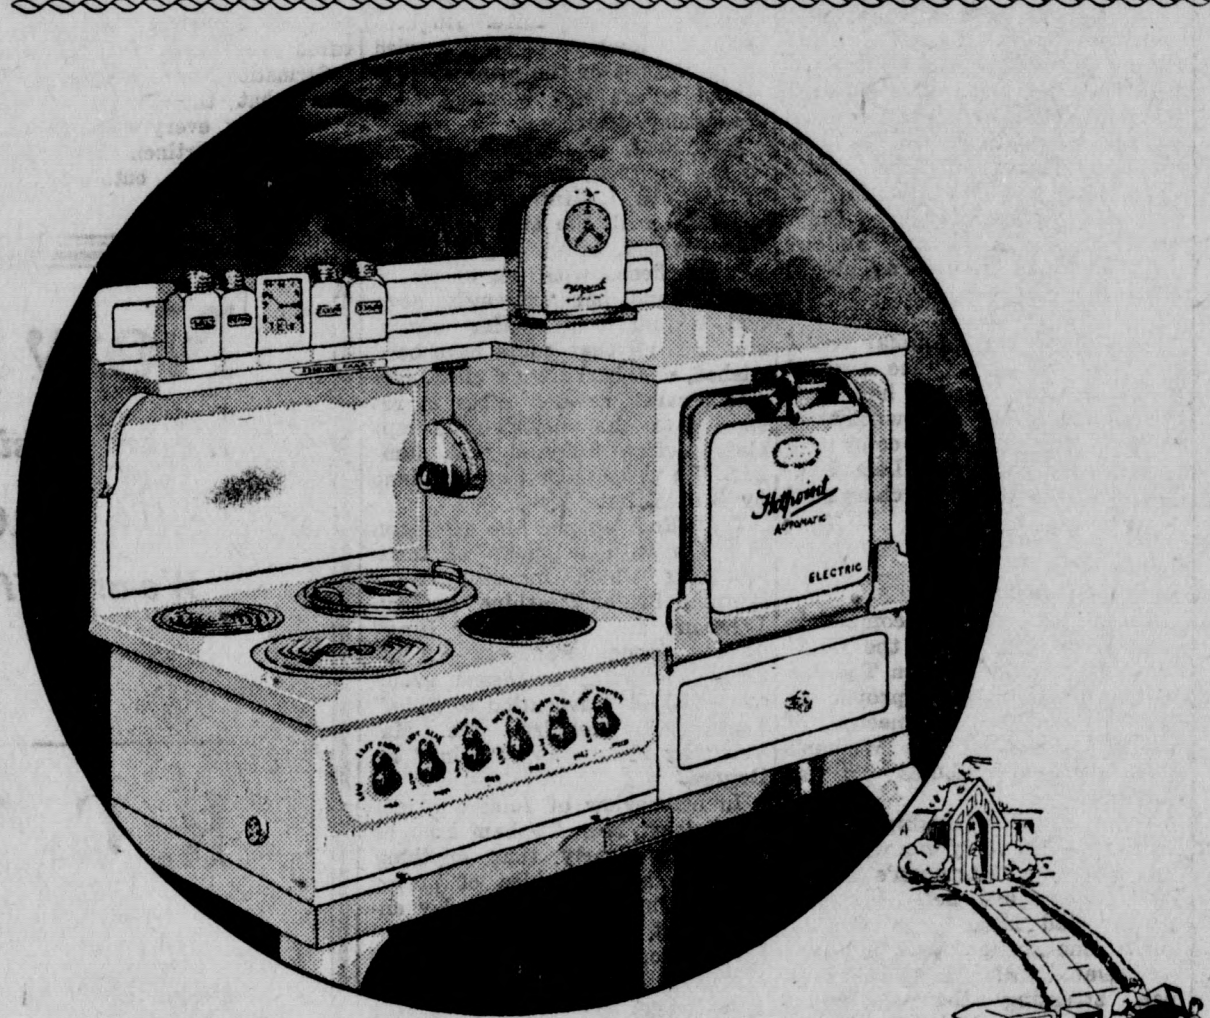

Mrs. Ella A. Cadmus entertained the following guests at dinner Tuesday evening at her home, Cadmus Villa, on 601 Woodland Drive: Mrs. Nettie J. Forrest, Mrs. Romaine Hill, Miss Katherine F. Burton and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Virgin.

Wild ducks, shot by E. P. Bradford at Salton Sea, were the occasion for a bridge dinner at the Bradford home on Tuesday evening. Besides the host and hostess the guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stephens of Alhambra and Mr. and Mrs. John Gist of Arcadia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Phelps of Whittier are enjoying a few days vacation in Seldom Inn cottage.

Owing to some confusion among members of the Canyon Improvement Association in regard to the regular night for the meeting of the association, officers of the organization make the announcement that the second Tuesday in each month has been designated as the regular time for the association to meet. All meetings are held in the Canyon Club house, located in the rear of E. A. Anderson's grocery store. A special meeting of the organization has been called for Tuesday evening, November 15th, at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Local and Personal

Annual Christmas Party Planned

First plans for the annual Christmas party for children of the community are under way today, following announcement of the event by Mrs. Fletcher H. White, president of the Woman's club at the meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Steinberger has been appointed in charge of the event, and will be assisted by an able committee, to be announced later. Each year the club sponsors a program and party in the club house, at which time gifts are presented to each child present. All children of the community have been invited, but each one must be sponsored by some club woman. Further announcement as to date and program will be made later in the month.

E. M. Johnson of Portland, Ore. is visiting his sisters Mrs. E. W. Schreier of Sierra Madre and Mrs. William Mallory of Pasadena. He has just completed a six-year period of enlistment in the navy and has had many interesting experiences to relate. During his active service he spent much time in the orient and the South Sea islands.

Mme. L. P. Fischer, accompanied by her small daughter, Beatrice, has arrived from Seattle, Washington, and is stopping at the home of Mrs. Jacob Annas until she finds suitable quarters for herself. Mme. Fischer is a costume designer of long experience, and had one of the most exclusive clienteles in Seattle, according to Mrs. Annas, who knew her there. She arrived from the north two weeks ago, but after staying for several days at the Annas home, went to Santa Barbara. She had expected to start business there but was so impressed with Sierra Madre that she returned here to locate permanently.

Among the curiosities of the month is the flowering dahlia tree in the Leah Fletcher Gardens on West Highland. Miss Fletcher reports that during the summer and fall the tree continued to grow and leaf until it reached the height of an ordinary orange tree, without a blossom. During the past week it has flowered out, the entire top being a mass of single-leaved pale pink blossoms.

Miss Helen Brooks of Pasadena was a visitor in Sierra Madre last evening, having motored from the Crown City after the performance at the Community Playhouse, where she was bidding friends farewell. Miss Brooks leaves Friday for Houston, Texas, where she will appear at one of the large playhouses in ingenue roles during the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brayton, who recently arrived from New York to make their home in California, spent several days the first of the week with friends in Sierra Madre.

St. Rita's to Give Carnival Dance

A carnival dance, with all the phrase implies, will be given at St. Rita's Friday evening, November 18, under the auspices of the Altar Society. Mrs. P. Thill is in charge of the event, and states that she is arranging for many novelties. There will be refreshments, and a fine orchestra is promised.

What's Doing At Theatres In Pasadena

At the Colorado
Silence! A door creaks as it slowly opened. More silence. A shot rings out. A flash of light is seen in the room. Thrills galore await those who go to the Colorado this week, starting tomorrow to witness "The Cat and the Canary." A splendid bill of "shorts" will also be shown, including International News, Topics, a melody series scenic, "Songs of Central Europe," and Lloyd Hamilton in "New Wrinkles."

The Strand
Jack Mulhall in "The Crystal Cup" features the bill for the last of the week, the production being termed one of the outstanding film stories of the year. Beginning Sunday Milton Sills in "Hard Boiled Haggerty" offers a plenty of action, thrill, love interest and comedy. Molly O'Day has the leading feminine role and Arthur Stone, Mitchell Lewis, Geo. Fawcett and Yola d'Avril are featured in the supporting cast.

The Raymond
"Becky," with charming little Sally O'Neil in a captivating stellar role and Owen Moore, as a gentleman crook, is now playing at this popular Pasadena theatre. In "Becky" Miss O'Neil is appearing in the best role of her screen career. Fanchon & Marco present the Sunkist Beauties in the "Lace Idea" one of the most spectacular and gorgeous costumed presentations ever formulated by these producers. The featured players are Cushing and Hutton and Mona Lee.

The Florence
Starting Sunday and continuing for one week, William Boyd and Bessie Love in "Dress Parade" a West Point picture of unusual appeal. The story was written by two West Point graduates, "Major Alexander Chilton and Major Robert Glassburn."

"The seventy thousand American boys who gave their lives for their country, battling on foreign soil, were all good boys—there was not one bad boy among them."

The speaker was Fred T. Beaty, county supervisor and president of the Foothill Breakfast club at the meeting of that organization yesterday morning. He referred to Col. Frith, recently prohibition director for Southern California, a world war veteran and a guest of the club. Mr. Beaty then went on to relate the story of Jimmy Jones, as told to him by Mr. Frith. "Jimmy Jones was one of the first to answer the call when this nation girded on its armor in the cause of humanity. Jimmy was the hardest-boiled of all the hard-boiled guys that ever enlisted. Before he had been in the army a month he had licked every man in the company, including the top kick twice. His hard-boiled tactics made jack-rabbits of the meanest mules in the army, and his language when occasion demanded was terrible. Jimmy was certainly hard boiled."

"One morning, at the zero hour Jimmy's company went over the top, and Jimmy was the first one out. The orders were to 'get' a certain machine gun nest. In the withering blast which greeted the company, Jimmy's arm was torn from his body and a great gaping hole was torn in his side."

"He was brought back to the lines, but the first aid unit cast him aside, that they might give their aid to men who had some slight chance of recovery."

"A physician at an emergency hospital looked at his wounds and turned away; the case was hopeless."

"At last came the chaplain and he knelt down beside Jimmy and asked what he could do."

"Give it to me straight, Cap," said Jimmy; "Is there a chance?"

"The chaplain knew that Jimmy knew and so he answered: 'Jimmy, boy; there is no hope. You are badly hurt, and you are going West. Can I pray for you?'"

"Naw!" said Jimmy, "I" do me

own prayin'!"
"And then as Jimmy closed his eyes his one good hand came up to his breast and he whispered: 'Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep; If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take.'"

"So I know," concluded the speaker, "that there was much good in even Jimmy Jones. They were all 'good' boys."

In Mexico you first run for president, then you run for your life. —American Lumberman.

ARMISTICE DAY

When Grim War Havoc Ended November eleventh, nineteen eighteen! Down the eternal ages the date will be remembered, in gratitude reverent and profound.

All of us who enjoy the freedom and advantages of living in this country, christened God's Country, extend to those who laid down their arms our heartfelt thanks and appreciation.

To those who never came back our minds turn with thoughts of gratitude. To those who at this time are on beds of pain we must cheer, comfort, and help; to those spending their days on this plane handicapped by the ravages of war we must assist, and to all who did "their bit" we must dedicate this day of peacemaking by a continuance of service to the country we love.

Let us turn out this Friday, November 11th, and meet at our City Park, thereby assisting the boys of the American Legion with our presence, and also further their work by supporting their efforts in behalf of the disabled comrades in this district.

One way to help is to purchase tickets for the dance to be held this evening, or by making donations direct to the American Legion.
